Jesus' brother was planning for Jesus to display His power and be famous. Jesus rejected the offer because His time had not yet come (v.6). Have you ever demanded God to follow your timetable and plan? Have you ever tried to wait upon God's timing? Is it easy to do so?

John 7:28 – 53

Day 142

---

Read Jesus' great invitation in vv.37-38. Have you tasted the living water—Jesus Christ? How did He satisfy you? Have other people tasted the Living Water through you?

During the Feast of Booths/Tabernacle, which commemorated Israel's forty years of desert wandering, one custom was to light candles as a reminder of God's guidance.

On this occasion, Jesus claimed to be the "light of the world" (v.12). How important was this claim? Have you experienced the presence, provision, and deliverance in Jesus?

A true disciple will "abide" in the words of Christ (v.31—also translated as "continue in" or "hold to"). It entails a determination to listen to, reflect on, hold fast to, and carry out every word of Christ. Are you abiding in God's Word? Is God's word a factor in your big and small decisions?

Jesus taught that the man's blindness was not about who sinned, but in order to display the work of God. Can sin sometimes bring sickness, trials, problems, and suffering? What are some sins in your life that you need to confess and repent? Are the trials you are facing today bringing glory to God?

Jesus asked the restored blind man, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" Jesus was not asking for a recognition of His existence, but a genuine trust in Him.

Have you trusted in Jesus—the Son of God, the Son of Man, the One who died on the cross for your sins and in your behalf?

Jesus is the sheep's "door/gate" (v.7) who brings people to God. He is also the "good shepherd" (v.11) who cares for them. Have you experienced Jesus as the door and the great shepherd? Have you also experienced, "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want" (Psalm 23:1)?

The Jews pressed Jesus to answer if He was the Messiah. Jesus did not answer directly but simply pointed them to His words and works. The people, however, rejected Him and sought to kill Him.

Have you accepted all the words and claims of Jesus? Is your life's behavior consistent with the Christ you professed?

Knowing that Jesus is the “resurrection and the life” (v.25), how should believers face death? How should you behave when your friend is mourning? What acts of compassion can you show to someone who is going through trials, suffering, and lost?

Jesus had raised Lazarus from the dead (vv.43–44). The chief priests and Pharisees, however, were concerned about other things. What were their concerns? What plan did Caiaphas the high priest suggest? Are there things in your life that you treasure over Jesus, or are unwilling to give up for Jesus?

Pure nard was prepared from an aromatic herb from northern India. The perfume cost around a year's wage for a fully employed man.

What prompted Mary to anoint Jesus with expensive perfume (v.8)? What acts of love have you done for Jesus? Have you given your priceless possession to Jesus because you treasure Him more?

One of the reasons many people would not accept Jesus is that “they love men’s approval rather than God’s” (v.43). Is seeking the approval of men wrong? Are there areas in your life where you seek the approval of men over the approval of God? Pray and ask for God’s forgiveness. Commit to live a God-centered life.

In Jesus' time, foot washing was considered a task so lowly that it was reserved for gentile slaves only. Jesus, however, washed His disciples' feet and asked His disciples to do the same. Is the Lord calling you to do any task that you consider humiliating? Remember: we are called to serve like our Master.

Jesus gave Judas a morsel of bread as a sign of friendship and grace. Yet the act also highlighted Judas' betrayal and disloyalty. John described what happened—that "Satan entered into him" (v.27). Have we ever betrayed Jesus by choosing people, money, and material things over Him?

Jesus claimed, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life." This is the sixth of seven "I Am" statements that Jesus made in the Book of John (cf. 6:48; 8:12; 10:9, 11; 11:25, 15:1). What did Jesus mean by these claims?

How will knowing that Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life change our mindset?

Jesus is the true vine. God is the vinedresser/gardener. Who are the branches and how can they bear fruit? What is the purpose of bearing fruit (v.8)? Are you bearing fruit that bring glory to God? Is there evidence that you are abiding in Christ?

Jesus used childbirth to illustrate the believer's circumstances in this world and in the world to come. Sorrow and suffering are part of the Christian life, but a believer's hope and joy will find their culmination in the coming of Christ.

Have you found hope in Jesus? What is your attitude towards your trials and afflictions?

What kind of relationship did Jesus have with His Father? How important was prayer to Jesus? How is your prayer life?

In Jesus' prayer for His followers, what has touched your heart?

Why did Peter deny Christ? What reasons do believers have to deny Christ? Have you ever denied Christ verbally? Have you done so through your actions?

Pilate asked a question that has echoed through the centuries: “What is truth?” (v.38). Unfortunately, he turned away from the One who claimed to bear witness to the truth (v.37). Are you looking for “truth”? Taste and see Jesus, who is Himself the Truth!

Pilate declared that he found no guilt in Jesus (v.4). Yet in the previous verses, he allowed his soldiers to flog, punch, and put a crown of thorns on Jesus. Later on, Jesus was crucified (v.18).

Did Jesus deserve to die on the cross? For what reason did He die?

Jesus' words, "It is finished" (v.30) referred to the completion of a task. In Jesus, prophecy was fulfilled (cf. Daniel 9:24-26), an acceptable sacrifice was offered to the Father (cf. 2 Corinthians 5:21), and redemption was accomplished (Colossians 2:14-17). Spend some time in worship and prayer.

Notice the repeated greeting of Jesus: "Peace be with you" (vv.19, 21, 26). Why was this greeting important? How was this greeting related to Christ's resurrection? Do you have peace?

Peter had denied Jesus three times (18:17-27). Now Jesus asked him three times, "Do you love me?" Remember, God is gracious to forgive those who repent.

Repentance must bring forth specific behavioral changes. In Peter's case, Jesus called Peter to take care of His sheep (vv.15-17). What signs of repentance are being manifested in your life?

What was Christ's instruction before He ascended to heaven? The disciples devoted themselves to prayer and to fulfilling God's promises. How do we live our lives as we wait upon the second coming of Christ?

Those who were filled with the Spirit proclaimed the mighty works of God in many known languages. Are we aware of God's work in our lives? Do we proclaim it as we rely on the power of the Holy Spirit?

Peter proclaimed Christ's lordship and messiahship through the testimony of David. He also pointed out how the people had rejected and crucified Christ. How did these people respond? How does God's word lead us to repentance and fellowship (sharing of resources, sharing with Christ in suffering, joining in prayer)?

Peter healed the lame beggar by Christ's power, thereby authenticating Christ's identity and the people's need for repentance. When God works through us, we must be careful that others acknowledge God instead of us, the instrument.

How did Peter and John respond before the council of the high priest's family? Are you willing to accept and endure persecution when you are threatened and falsely accused? Choose to be right in the sight of God rather than men!

How do you face persecution? Instead of asking God to spare us or remove us from persecution, pray for courage and boldness to speak God's word anyway.

Acts 4:32 – 5:16

Day 171

---

What were the attitude and purpose of Barnabas in donating his money? What about Ananias and Sapphira? Did the death of Ananias and Sapphira become a hindrance for the people to believe in Christ? What do you think is more important to God, what we offer to Him or why we offer to Him?

Acts 5:17 – 42

Day 172

What was the main reason for the apostles' imprisonment? The high priest and Sadducees failed to realize that they were actually opposing God when they hindered the apostles' work. Do we hinder God's ministry by opposing the people whom He uses to accomplish His plan?

God's work was accomplished not only by apostles who preached the word, but also by deacons who were chosen to serve the people. Every one of us has a certain role or ministry for the expansion of God's kingdom. Do we serve God faithfully in that role?

Stephen faced opposition from his own Jewish brothers when he was preaching the gospel powerfully. Likewise, there may be accusations and false witnesses that discourage us from serving God. We should not be weary, for God will testify for us.

Stephen addressed his opponents by stating God's faithfulness toward their forefathers and their faithlessness in rejecting and persecuting God's messengers. How do we handle opposition? Do we use God's word as our means to defend the truth?

Stoning to death was a traditional way of execution for people who blasphemed God.

There will be people who refuse to believe even when we speak with the power of the Holy Spirit. Are we willing to sacrifice everything for Christ—even our very own life?

Acts 8:1 – 25*Day 177

---

Despite general persecution, people were gathering to the apostles. Some believed and were baptized. Some preached God's word. Still some were baptized but were not true believers at all. What kind of followers are we? Are our hearts right before God?

Acts 8:26 – 40*Day 178

---

God led Philip to explain the Scripture to the eunuch and baptize him. Are we sensitive to God when He prompts us to approach someone and explain His word?

Christ transformed Saul from being a persecutor to a passionate Christian. He also turned Ananias from being a victim to God's messenger. Have you experienced Christ's transforming power? Does it lead you to obey and follow Him boldly?

Has anyone doubted the genuineness of your conversion? Paul got his assurance from the Lord Himself and reassurance from other believers as he testified about Christ and lived out his faith.

Peter and Cornelius were both called by God to meet with each other without knowing the reason, yet both of them obeyed without any delay. Do we obey God even when we don't fully understand everything?

Peter and the believers witnessed God's impartiality by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the Gentiles.

Are we willing to share the gospel without partiality?

When Peter explained God's heart and work for the Gentiles, what was the response of those who had favored circumcision? How did they later respond to the work in Antioch among the Hellenists (Greeks)? Humble acceptance of our own sin leads us to glorify God and support God's ministry.

Persecution and deliverance often accompany witnessing for Christ. How did Peter take his persecution? How does God manifest His sovereignty in the midst of our own persecution?

God enabled Paul to perform miraculous signs. However, what was it that caused proconsul Sergius Paulus to believe in God? Does God's work lead us to trust and grow in Him?

When Paul preached to the Jews, he wisely used the Old Testament Scripture and the example of their forefathers. Later, he turned to the Gentiles when other Jews rejected the gospel. Do we also seek to know God's will and rely on His wisdom as we deliver His message?

Though Paul and Barnabas faithfully preached God's word, some Jews and Gentiles were being deceived by unbelievers. The people of Lystra even misrepresented Paul and Barnabas as "gods." Do these persecution and misrepresentation hinder God's ministry?

Circumcision was a sign of the covenant between God and Israel (Gen. 17:9-14). Thus, the Jewish believers demanded that Gentile believers should also be circumcised to receive salvation.

As "old" believers, do we demand that new believers share our own personal experience about Christianity?

How did Paul handle and resolve the issue of circumcision within the Church? Did he do a good job dealing with the conflict over John Mark?

In obedience to the leading of the Holy Spirit, Paul and Timothy were able to minister to Lydia, baptizing her and her household. God still guides us through His Word, although we may not see a vision or hear an audible voice. Do we heed His Word?

---

Paul and Silas were falsely accused and imprisoned, yet they were able to minister to the jailer and other prisoners, who otherwise would not be reached! When trouble strikes, can you recognize it as a God-given opportunity for you to witness for Him?

Acts 17:1 – 15*Day 192

---

Are we envious of those who actively and effectively serve the Lord? In order to accomplish God's will, let us learn the lesson of partnership and serve God together.

Have you tried sharing the gospel to other religious groups? Observe how Paul used their common ground to lead them to Christ. Will you take such effort and time to explain and clarify the truth?

Throughout Paul's journey, he encountered many prominent Jews: Aquila, Priscilla, Titius Justus, Crispus, and Apollos. Some followed Paul and were able to minister to other believers. They differed in terms of their mission (vv. 7, 8, 26) and passion for the Lord (vv. 7, 24-25).

What is your mission as a believer, and where lies your passion?

The Ephesian believers thought that baptism of repentance was enough. Likewise, the sons of Sceva thought that by uttering the name of Jesus and Paul, they could cast out evil spirits even without faith in Christ.

Where do you put your faith: in some outward symbol, or in Christ Himself?

Demetrius aroused his craftsmen into a commotion against Paul. Unexpectedly, God used the town clerk to reason with the crowd.

Are we quick to defend ourselves? Sometimes, we might miss out on the chance to witness God's miraculous deliverance.

God did not only empower Paul to preach His word, but also enabled him to raise Eutychus from death. Do we experience God's authenticating work in and through our lives?

When Paul recounted his experience, ministry, and suffering in the Lord, he did not intend to exalt himself, but rather to encourage fellow believers. We should neither boast of our experience, nor refrain from sharing for fear of being judged. We should realize that sharing with right motivation can uplift others in Christ.

Out of love, the believers were trying to prevent Paul from going up to Jerusalem. However, it was God's will that Paul should go. Are we willing to let God's will prevail over our own desire?

Even though Paul followed the Jewish Law, some Jews from Asia falsely accused him of bringing a Gentile into the temple.

Have you ever been falsely accused even when you tried to live up to God's standard? Would you continue to stand firm for Christ?

Acts 21:37 – 22:29*Day 201

---

Observe how Paul defended himself before the Jews. Would you witness to those who want to kill you? To what extent are you willing to endure hardship and share God's Word?

Acts 22:30 – 23:11*Day 202

---

During Paul's trial, the Pharisees and Sadducees disagreed in their theology. Can we stand firm in what we believe, just like Paul did?

God used the commander (tribune or chief captain)—an unbeliever—to deliver Paul from the plot of the Jews. Are we willing to trust God’s promise in the midst of adversity and uncertainty?

Felix seemed to favor Paul, but he had an ulterior motive—to receive bribe money from Paul.

What is our motive when we profess Christ? Is it to get some worldly, personal benefit or to genuinely receive Christ Himself?

Numerous times, the Jews tried to accuse Paul but couldn't find any evidence against him. Do we live a pure and blameless life? When we do, God has His own way to vindicate us.

In the midst of trial, Paul firmly preached God's word to King Agrippa rather than defended himself. Do we compromise our message in order to avoid getting ourselves into trouble? Let us imitate Paul's attitude.

What made the sailors, centurion, and soldiers follow Paul's suggestions during the storm? Remember, we are not God, but God can use us as instruments to lead others to Him.

Although Paul was a prisoner in the sight of men, God gave him the opportunity to bear witness. Let us not be afraid or anxious over our identity, for God has His own way of affirming our message when He allows us to witness for Him.

Even though Paul was imprisoned, people came to listen to his preaching. Let us not allow time and space to limit our ministry for the Lord. If we are faithful, God will provide the opportunity.

*What was Paul's perception of the gospel, and what was his attitude in preaching it? (vv.14-17)
What can we learn from Paul about preaching the gospel?*

Can man know God? How? What happens when man refuses to acknowledge God as God? (v.18 onwards) Does my life manifest God as God?

I Timothy 1

Day 294

---

The books of I Timothy, II Timothy, and Titus are collectively known as the Pastoral Epistles. In them Paul taught younger pastors how to administer the church.

What was one problem in the church during this writing (vv.3-7)? Do we encounter the same problem nowadays?

*Are you being faithful in intercessory prayer?
Today we are reminded that besides our personal needs, our prayer can include unbelievers and people who are in authority over us.*

Commit to pray for our church leaders — that they may be kept holy, wise, strong, and zealous for the gospel.

Paul sincerely wanted to pass on his ministerial values to Timothy, the younger pastor. What are some principles Paul taught? How can you apply them in your ministry?

Why is there a need for human leaders (elders and overseers) in the church? What attitude should believers have towards God-appointed leaders?

Note that Scriptures emphasize not only correct doctrines and theology, but also how we live out our faith on a day-to-day basis. This same emphasis applies to leaders (chap.1) and all believers (chap.2) alike. With this in mind, how will you go about your business today?

We are not saved on the basis of our deeds. (Otherwise, none of us would qualify to be saved.) However, since we are saved, God calls us to good deeds and enables us for godly living. What reminder(s) in this chapter most apply to you?

Philemon was Paul's co-worker and friend. His servant Onesimus had run away because of wrongdoing. Later Onesimus met Paul and became a believer. Here in this short, warm letter, Paul was making a personal appeal that Philemon should accept Onesimus once again.

Although good works do not justify a believer, they demonstrate the genuineness of one's faith. Christ manifested His love by His sacrificial act on the cross. This love compels us to love God and others not only with words but also with actions.

What good work and act of love will you do today?

The tongue is just a small part of our body, but it directs our life and reflects our disposition.

Although no one can tame the tongue completely, God can enable us to place our tongue under His authority and empower us to control it.

How do our evil passions and desires dominate our lives? How do they affect others and our relationship with God?

Are we guilty of being judgmental, arrogant, and self-righteous? Remember, "Whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin" (v. 17).

Have you come to trust in Jesus Christ—the Son of God who died for your sins? Are you manifesting Christian love in your life?

Christian love is rooted in God's truth, not motivated by human compassion or sentimental emotions (vv.2-3). It is spurred by the knowledge of the truth, which has been revealed in Christ. So, are you living out truth by loving? Think of someone to whom you can show love in truth today.

Notice the constant emphasis throughout John's three letters on how a believer should walk the truth in love. How important is walking the truth in love?

Revelation 2

Day 345

Revelation chapters 2-3 are letters to the seven churches in Asia Minor (present-day Turkey). List the strengths and weaknesses of the church in Ephesus (vv.1-7), Smyrna (vv.8-11), Pergamum (vv.12-17), and Thyatira (vv.18-29) respectively.

How should you function as part of the church body to make the church more vibrant?

Before Jesus' ascension, he declared, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me" (Matthew 28:18). In Revelation 5:5, only "[Jesus]—the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David" has the authority to open the scroll and its seven seals. What kind of God do we have? Spend some time in personal worship.

Revelation 6

Day 349

The succeeding chapters give a detailed account of what will happen in the future, particularly the tribulations relating to the vision of Daniel (see Daniel 9:24-27). Why do you think God, through Christ, will cause these disasters and tragedies? How bad is sin in God's eye?

Revelation 7

Revelation 10

Day 353

---

In vv.8-11, John was commanded to take and eat the scroll. It would be sweet in his mouth (referring to the encouragement he receives from God's Word) but sour in his stomach (referring to the constraint John feels from prophesying God's Word). Is God's Word sweet to your soul? Are you sharing it to others?

Revelation 11

---

The Scripture is not clear who the two witnesses will be; nevertheless, their appearance marks the start of the great tribulation. What is the cost of being a witness of God?

Chapters 12 and 13 are generally disheartening, but there are some important events that should not be missed. (1) The Child—Jesus Christ will rule. (12:5). (2) Satan will be defeated (12:9). In the midst of adversity and tribulations, believers can still hope in the Lord because Jesus is triumphant! Do you have that hope?

How severe are the judgments of the seven bowls? Would the people repent? What do you learn about the human heart?

Do you harbor any sin in your life? Confess and repent! Do not take God's judgment lightly.

Chapters 17-18 record the fall of Babylon the great. There are different interpretations as to the identity of "Babylon the great, mother of prostitutes and of earth's abomination" (17:5). In any case, the "Great Babylon" will be judged. Do you look forward to the day when evil will be judged, or do you anticipate with fear?

Revelation 18

---

How would you describe the judgment of the “Great Babylon” in your own words? Notice in verse 24 that before the judgment of the “Great Babylon,” there will be Christian martyrs. Are you willing to die for Christ? Will the “Great Babylon” notice you to be a saint, or is your Christian life imperceptible to the world?
